SALE—FARM I PROPOSE TO SELL A NUTTALL FARM, lying on the waters of Cox's Creek, near Ky., immediately on the Piedmont as the road runs, about five miles from Parkersburg.
The farm contains 60 acres of good productive land clear, the remainder set in blue grass; no other crops are raised on the premises; a new residence built on the place; a large barn;
a well-shedded house on the premises; a good mill race.

Some citizens are also enabled to purchase the same at low prices in iron mines. There is on the place a small settlement of about 100 persons. The tract is about 1 mile long and 1/2 mile wide, but almost adjoining the above tract on the Bardonia and Louisville road, consisting of about 120 acres. Said land is well adapted for raising corn, wheat and some 25 acres of land being lately covered with a growth of timber. The land all lies well, has an abundance of water, and a sufficiency of timber, and nearly all the above lands will be sold jointly or separately in tracts. Together they will make an excellent place for a country residence. For further information apply to J. C. WEAVER, of HITCHINGS, DUNCAN, & CO., Eighth and Louisville, Ky., or to the undersigned adjacent to the same.

and all lies well, is in a good neighborhood of intelligent citizens, and will make a good home for any one desiring a country residence.

January, 1966, in the premises, sell the farm equipment. Terms made easy to suit the purchaser and the undersigned, near the premises, 013 GEO W. FORMAN.
